The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500 five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsel or her suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700 besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

SMALL PRICE MEN.

We never saw the truth and force of the saying, "Every man has his price," so strikingly illustrated, as at the present time.—We do not believe that the proverb is literally true of thousands. There are many of our people, who cannot be bought, who are ready to sacrifice all selfish ends, all personal interest or expectation, for their country, their State and their race. But how is it with others? We learn, here and there, of an occasional, isolated case of defection to the white man's cause, which would surprise us, if we did not know that some men have their price.

When we hear a man of ordinary common sense say, "well, the new Constitution is bad, it is true, but we may get worse, and I'll vote for it," or if we hear him say, "we had better vote for the Constitution and go back," or "the General Assembly will separate whites and blacks," &c., we take it for granted that such men have an axe to grind or have been bought up. They are small price men, like Esau, who sell their birthright for a mess of pottage. Shame upon such cowards! They are unworthy sons of the old North State. Such men will live to see the day when they will blush before their children, and when their children will despise them.

VANCE AND TURNER IN THE WEST.

Gov. Vance spoke to an audience of at least 1,000 people, at Newton, on the 31st. The crowd was enthusiastic and all one way. Catawba promises 800 majority against the infamous Constitution. Vance is now making his way towards and over the mountains.

Hon. Josiah Turner spoke to a large crowd, doubtless, in Wilkesboro, on the 31st., in Caldwell Co., on the 1st., and at Morganton (together with Vance) on yesterday.

A friend, who has the amplest opportunities of information, writes us from the West that "we may safely count on carrying every county from Salisbury, West, to the mountains, except Polk and Wilkes,—and there is no reason to despair of them.—They will doubtless be right in the end."

The work goes bravely on! / PRESS ON THE COLUMNS!

C. R. THOMAS, one of the signers of the ordinance of Secession, a candidate for the Confederate Congress, a terrible rebel (except as to fighting,) in the beginning of the war, has gone West to help Tod R. Caldwell. Well, little Tod needs help,—especially where he is best known. But the misfortune is, that C. R. Thomas can't help anybody, and, even if he could, he will be in such a hornet's nest, when Vance and Jo Turner nab him, that he won't know his own name. Poor Thomas! Poor Tod!

THE VOTE upon the new Constitution will be taken the 21st., 22nd. and 23d. of April. Be sure and VOTE AGAINST IT.

"VOTE FOR THE CONSTITUTION AND GO BACK."

We warn the people of North Carolina against this contemptible and false cry of the Holdenites. Their hypocrisy and total disregard of truth are well known. You can scarcely find a white man in the State, who has any confidence in Holden, or any of his supporters. Ninety out of any hundred white men you meet, tell you that they have no confidence in them, yet such is the innate devotion of our people to the Union of their fathers—so anxious are they for the settlement of our national difficulties and for peace and quiet,—that they are ready to listen to almost any propositions, looking, as they suppose, to these ends.

Hence, over two years ago, many were led to vote for Holden, because of the silly cry, "vote for Holden and go in and for Worth and stay out." Now the song is, "vote for the Constitution and the Holden ticket and go back."

We do not believe the State was ever out of the Union. Our people do not believe it. So far as North Carolina is concerned, there never was any difficulty, among our people, in settling our national affairs. The convictions of our people made them cling to the Union till the last hope had vanished, and, when the war ended, they desired no further conflict. Hence, we deny palpably, that there has been any just cause, at any time, for keeping North Carolina in the condition in which she is.

If we are out of the Union, whose fault is it? Is it not the fault of Holden and his minions? Did he not urge and counsel secession? Who has kept us out? Why no one but such land-pirates as Holden and Brownlow. The whole trouble of the South, and the trouble of the nation, rests upon the shoulders of the "Southern loyalists," like Holden and others.

The policy of Andrew Johnson would have restored the quiet and peace and prosperity of the country, two years ago, if it had not been for such marplots. Unworthy of public confidence, as they had proven themselves to be, the people could not confide in them—were unwilling to place them in control of public affairs; and, hence, where the true white people of the South had a voice, they would not elect them to office.

The falsehoods and misrepresentations of the Southern so called loyalists—the Holdens, the Brownlows, the Hamiltons, the Browns, &c.,—have brought the country to its present condition. The army officers of the South, and Gen. Grant, after a careful survey of the matter, believed, two years ago, that the South was ready for restoration. No difficulty presented itself, no discord arose between Congress and the President, until the misrepresentation and falsehoods of the "Southern loyalists," backed by the Bureau officers and others who desired to be retained in the public service, poisoned the mind of Congress. Many of the members of Congress, without a particle of evidence, except the false statements of these unprincipled men, believe, or affect to believe, that the Union men of the South are still persecuted. Ben. Wade alluded, the other day, to the relief of the Union men, as being one of his first objects after he became President, and a man of the intelligence of Senator Trumbull remarked, recently, that the Reconstruction acts grew out of the persecuted condition of the Union men of the South. There never was a more unfounded libel upon any people than this, and the stupendous lie has originated all our troubles since the war.

Who are to blame for this? Everybody knows that these difficulties have arisen from the malicious falsehoods of "southern loyalists"—of just such men as Holden and his abettors. They have been challenged, time and again, to produce evidence of the persecution of Union men, since the war. No such evidence has been presented. So far from it, the Radical clamor against the Union men has been unabated. No Union men in the State are recognized by them as loyal, unless they declare themselves to be Radicals and supporters of the new Constitution. What better Union men are there in the State, than Jonathan Worth, Lewis Hanes, Dr. Jones, D. F. Caldwell, Nereus Mendenhall, Tomlinson, of Randolph, and thousands of others, who are denounced as disloyal, because they cannot, and will not, support Holden and the Mongrel Constitution!

No, the free people of North Carolina will not ratify the worthless thing, nor will they be longer deceived by the ridiculous plea that it is necessary for the settlement of their difficulties. They feel, AND KNOW, that its adoption will AGGRAVATE THEIR CONDITION a thousand fold,—that it will make the white men of North Carolina, of all people on earth, the MOST ABJECT!

RIVAL CANDIDATES.—We regret to see a disposition, in some quarters, to oppose the regular nominees of Conventions, Committees, &c. We can see no good to grow out of this course, on the part of Conservatives, unless all should exert themselves the more energetically to defeat the Constitution.

It will cause much confusion in the ticket, as it will be very inconvenient to insert the names of rival candidates on the same side. Gen. Canby requires every voter to cast but one ballot in one box, and where the ticket is not correctly printed or arranged fully with every name on the ticket, it will cause serious inconvenience. We are so confident of defeating the Constitution and so determined upon it, that we have been surprised that any one should desire office. The great object of every Conservative candidate should be the defeat of the Constitution, and, therefore, the defeat of himself.

WHICH IS BETTER, a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Morehead, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scallawags and negroes?

THE WHITE MEN ASTIR.

The East responds to the West.

THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION ODIOUS!!

NEW HANOVER.—There is to be a great Mass Meeting in Wilmington, to-night.—Col. E. D. HALL, our candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, and Col. R. H. GOWAN are to address the meeting. The ladies will be present in ample, special accommodations having been provided for them.

NORTHAMPTON.—The Roanoke News says: "This neighboring county is marching into line with an earnestness that tells us all is right. A correspondent from Jackson informs us that the Conservatives of that county met at Jackson on Saturday, and placed an entire county ticket in nomination. The meeting was harmonious and pleasant, and it is evident this county will poll its entire strength against the doings of Radicalism. Says our correspondent, "I know of no white negroes in Northampton save those who want office."

The Radicals held a meeting in Jackson, on the same day, but could not agree upon the division of spoils between the genuine and the counterfeit negroes.

SAMPSON.—There was a grand Mass Meeting of the white people of this good old county, on the 28th. ult. A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal furnishes the following account of it:

"Col. E. D. Hall, in one of his most happy and telling speeches, to day struck a blow in the enemy's camp from which they can never recover. Would that it was in my power to picture to you and every white man in North Carolina the effect his address had on our people. No word of mine can add anything to his already well-earned fame.

After Col. Hall had concluded his speech, Col. A. A. McKoy called on the audience to know how many there were present who were in favor of and wanted a white man's government. Those in favor of it were requested to hold up the right hand. All the whites and some fifteen or twenty negroes responded to this appeal by raising their right hands.

After which, came Col. Thos. S. Kenan, of Duplin, who was present by special invitation, (although out of his District,) and desiring to add to the cause, (whether in his own cause or out of it), and was introduced by our highly honored countyman, Col. McKoy, and, amid the cheers of the vast audience, proceeded to address the meeting in a speech replete with sound argument and directed with well-aimed precision to both white and colored.

Then came Capt. Robinson, of Fayetteville, and although it was his first speech in Sampson, and he almost an entire stranger, yet he found a hearty response to his own feelings in the bosom of every true and honest white man in Sampson county, and it is the wish of the good people here, that Capt. Ben may long live to deal such blows to the enemy as he did here to day.

The last speech was made by our friend J. C. Dobbin, from Fayetteville, and if the others had left any part of the work unfinished, he finished it. He acted well his part, as he always does, and you may be assured that Sampson is now awake—her eyes have been opened. We see the abyss into which the Radicals would drive, and with determined spirit the people of Sampson intend to go with all their might against the new Constitution."

WAYNE.—A glorious mass meeting in Goldsboro', on Tuesday. Hon. S. J. Person, Col. Thomas S. Kenan, Alex. Justice and John P. Wooten, Esqrs., addressed the people with great power and effect. The Rough Notes says:

"We have attended many political meetings and listened often to the best speakers of all the old political parties, but never have listened to speeches which told better on an audience or seen an audience better pleased, more enthusiastic, or more firmly resolved to do their duty."

CAMDEN.—The Edenton Transcript brings us good news from the Albemarle country. Pereber, Speed, Martin, Lake, Bagley and Skinner are in the field, doing noble service. A large meeting of the Conservatives of Camden was held a few days since, which was ably addressed by Cols. Martin, Pereber and Lake. Dr. B. M. Baxter presided.

PASQUOTANK.—A fine meeting of the white men of this county was held at the Court House, on the 21st. Dr. Speed and Col. W. F. Martin addressed the people amid great enthusiasm. County and District Executive and Enrolling Committees were appointed, and a thorough plan of organization arranged.

BERKE.—A correspondent, writing us from this county, under date of the 29th. says:

"I had the pleasure of hearing of one of the leading officers of the League burning the book of his League, saying they were done with the infamous concern."

MACON.—A correspondent in this county, writing us under date of March 22nd, says:

"We had the largest and most enthusiastic Conservative meeting, last Saturday, in Franklin, that we have had since the war. Everything indicates that we will VOTE DOWN the Constitution."

IMPEACHMENT A PARTY NECESSITY.—It is apparent from the events to day, that it is the disposition of the managers to rush the trial through at all possible speed, and in this they are upheld by the Senators of the Sumner and Drake stripe. It is now confessed, even among the Republican Senators who have been regarded as conservatively inclined, that it is a party necessity to remove the President, and that as speedily as possible. Hence it is understood that a movement will soon be made to fix the commencement of the session at 10 o'clock, and even to hold night sessions, if necessary. The counsel for the defence will of course demur to any such arrangement as this, but it is not likely that their objection will have much weight.—N. Y. Sun.

NORTH CAROLINA POET.—We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from T. H. Hill, Esq., the Poet of North Carolina, who did us the honor to visit our sanctum en route to New York. We are glad to learn that he meditates embodying his exquisite productions in a volume and we predict for him a brilliant success. He is the Shelley of the South.—Norfolk Virginian.

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

For the Sentinel.

THE X. P. G. AN ASTRAIT.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The X. P. G. has evidently become alarmed at the news from Washington, touching the removal of his "disabilities." The Senate rejected him for St. Salvador, on account of his secessionism and disloyalty, and there seems to be no doubt that his "Record" will still keep him out in the cold, and, even if he should be elected, (which is not possible, with a majority of red white men in the State,) out of that "morsel of his life long aspirations,—the Gubernatorial chair, by the suffrages of anybody, negroes or what not.

The poor Rhenodate, despairing of success on his own merits, has called upon the Federal Army to help him out,—upon Quartermasters, Freedmen's Bureau officers, and others, to assist in making him eligible for Governor of North Carolina.

I transmit to you a paper, which has been printed for presentation to Congress, at the instance of the unhappy and desperate X. P. G.

I think that you will unite with us, Messrs. Editors, in saying, that things have come to a remarkable pass, when officers of the Army thus enter the arena in behalf of a party candidate. I say officers of the army, for, although this document sets out with a declaration as if from "late honorably discharged officers," &c., it is well known that many of the signers are now high in Military rank and command. But, perhaps, some of these names are used without authority. Can this be so?

Y.

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, D. C.

We, the undersigned, late honorably discharged officers and soldiers of the United States Army, who served during the late rebellion for the preservation of our common country, now residing in the State of North Carolina, of which we have become citizens, do most earnestly and respectfully ask the relief of Hon. W. W. Holden, from the political disabilities imposed by law, certain parties having circulated a rumor that said disabilities would not be removed. We believe that the interest of those laboring for reconstruction in this State, would be promoted by granting this petition.

How does Congress know that the above are genuine names? Printed petitions, with printed names, are very suspicious. Yet it is not surprising to find most of the above names on the list of petitioners for the removal of Holden's disabilities. Many of them will denounce him behind his back and will call him a secessionist, a hypocrite, &c., and yet sign his petition. Officers of the army, who sign such petitions, have had ample opportunity of knowing, that there is not a more consummate political hypocrite and deceiver living, than W. W. Holden. We are not surprised, we say, at many names on the petition. We are rather surprised that some names are not on it, that we expected to see.

BUTLER'S BLUNDERS.—The recess having expired, Butler resumed his reading; but he soon shocked the moral sense of the Senate by exclaiming, "Even Horton raised his hands to the Prince of Peace, praying in the language of Stephen the martyr, 'forgive them, for they know not what they do.'" Old Thad, the Biblical member of the Committee of Managers, begged Butler to consult his Bible oftener or quote it less, and suggested that the prayer was not by Stephen the martyr.—Balt. Gazette.

WHICH IS BETTER, the old Constitution of our fathers, under which we have lived and prospered, or the new Constitution, which obliterates all the ancient and honored landmarks, and provides for a TAXATION, which will crush the people to powder, and which is designed to have the effect of transferring the property of our people into the hands of NORTHERN SPECULATORS!

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

For the Sentinel.

HOLDEN WANTS TREASON PUNISHED—NOT PARDONED.

"He forget his high purpose to make treason odious. Then I abandoned him.—As I before had abandoned the Democratic party, with its life long associations . . . I abandoned Andrew Johnson."

Thus spoke the X. P. G. at Tucker Hall, with the shamelessness that characterised throughout that most shameless speech.—"Life long associations with the Democratic party," indeed! Why, you were an uproarious Whig until the middle of May, 1843, when to make you tread you put yourself in market overt between the Whigs and the Democrats. There was but one bid at the sale, or rather the lease; you were knocked off to the Democracy, and the Standard became yours. The Whigs could not afford to pay the small price demanded for the commodity.

You said in your Tucker Hall speech, that "nearly fifty summers had passed over your brow." By Dalzell's arithmetic you were, therefore, nearly 26 years old at the day and date of the sale aforesaid; and nearly 25 summers had passed over your precious head when, in 1842, you published in the Raleigh Register your famous eulogy on Henry Clay—God bless his memory!—and "poured out your whole (great) heart" in his praise. Do the first 25 years of your precious life count for nothing in estimating life-long associations?

But that is not the worst of it. You have made yourself somewhat famous for abandoning friends. In the course of those fifty summers you have managed to abandon almost every body—even yourself—You abandoned the Whigs in 1843. You abandoned the Democrats, heaven knows when. You abandoned your patron and friend, Andrew Johnson, as soon as your cunning and covetous eye saw that his power was fading away, and the fountain of honors (!) and patronage was being transferred to the Senate. And, what was the pretended cause of this cruel desertion?—Because, forsooth, "he forgot his high purpose to make treason odious!" Merciful God! Can a Southern man, born and nurtured in a Southern clime, liberally supported by kind-hearted Southern people, make that a cause of complaint and abandonment of a patron and friend? Could a Southern tongue utter a feeling so infernally base? There must be some strange mistake. He was born somewhere else. No Southern milk ever nursed the infancy of a wretch so heartless. He was frozen into being among Polar bears, and then adopted among Hyenas. He was dropped in wrath on Southern soil by some flying Dragon of diabolical origin—or by some other malignant demon. The sentiment is not human. What! after the war was over, and our whole people had been essentially ruined and trampled low in the dust; when at last the hearts of the victors were relenting, and heavenly mercy was beginning to smile once more; when the hard dogma that treason was to be punished, not pardoned, was mellowing down into a holy christian charity; then must he throw himself in the way of mercy, and whet his old butcher knife for new vengeance! HE, whose clarion notes had rung out till night became hideous, and blessed day, too,—"FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT! everywhere—all the time!" HE, who threatened "swift destruction" to all who might dare to "prefer the old Union to the Confederate States!" HE, who pronounced Lincoln "a knave, a fool, and a tyrant," and significantly asked "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln and Gen. Scott!" HE, who urged the authorities to "drill them (the laggards) till their legs get limber!—stir them up! BLOW THE FIFE!—BEAT THE DRUM! Coax and URGE and DRIVE out all who ought to go, etc., etc.," until our high-mettled young men could find no peace at home, and vast numbers were pushed and goaded into treason by his eternal ding-dong! And is it for HIM to call for more blood, and more ruin?—Can he not afford to pardon those in high places, against whom he was not, very long ago, so very sanguinary and unforgiving, for melting over the woes of his section?—But must he—HE—turn his back, and abandon them in disgust! Have honor, mercy, decency, fled to brutish beasts, forever? The worst of them, the Hyena himself, would hang his head and blush, could he possibly imagine himself capable of cruelty so unmitigated—so utterly shameless.

Dissolution of Co-partnership: Cyrus P. Mendenhall & Co.

CUT AND TO THE POINT.—A lawyer of some prominence in this State, who lately turned negro-supremacist, approached a venerable and high-toned member of the Bar, some time since, as he had done in other days, and offered his hand, when the venerable jurist turned upon his heel and refused to recognize him.

A few days ago, two lawyers met at the same table not a thousand miles from this City. The elder (Radical negro-worshipper) spoke to the younger across the table. The younger, feeling the native pride of a gentleman, who cannot be bought, replied, "I have known you long and have esteemed you in other days, but your present position forbids my recognizing you, hereafter."

CANDIDATES.—Dr. J. M. Mullen, of Camden, is one of the Conservative nominees for the Senate in the proposed 1st District, composed of the counties of Perquimans, Chowan, Pasquotank, Currituck, Gates and Camden.

James C. Dobbin and Jno. A. Oates are the Conservative nominees for the Senate for Cumberland and Sampson; and Jno. C. Williams is the nominee for the House of Representatives (so called) in Sampson.

Col. William A. Allen is the Conservative candidate for the Senate in Duplin and Onslow.

A SPECIMEN BRICK.—The most violent of the so called white Radicals are the men who, but a very short time ago, were the fiercest denouncers of the old Union, of the Yankees, &c. A case in point:

Richard I. Wynne, who is the negro candidate for the Senate in Franklin, proclaims, we are told, that he is a Radical all over,—that "even every hair on his horse is Radical," &c.

Some time in 1865, when the Federal Maj. Pummel, who had been in command at Louisburg, left that place with his detachment, Richard I. Wynne is said to have publicly expressed the wish "that their road to their destination could be paved with powder, and their horses shod with lightning, that every one of them might be sent into eternity together!"

HOLDEN AT PITTSBORO'.—We call attention to the account given by our correspondent of Holden's speech at Pittsboro', on Monday. It will be seen that he actually threatened white men with extermination by the NEGROES, if the infamous Constitution should be voted down. Such ridiculous and contemptible bluster is the best evidence of Holden's desperation. He sees the hand-writing on the wall,—he feels that he can never be Governor of North Carolina, by the suffrages of the people,—and he strikes about him, pitiably, with a blind and reckless fury. Again we say, press on the columns!

SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—We learn, from a private source, that the Hon. Nathaniel Boyden has received the Conservative nomination for Congress in this District, that he accepts, and that he will at once enter upon a vigorous canvass against the Holden ticket and the infamous Constitution. We presume that no one will question Mr. Boyden's Union record, unless it be Holden, the father of Secession in North Carolina.

CIRCULATE THE PAPERS.—Thanks to a friend at Jacob's Fork, Catawba, for a club of 20 campaign subscribers.

Thanks to Capt. G. F. C. Corl, Pioneer Mills, Cabarrus, for a club of 13, for the campaign.

And many thanks to our whole-souled friend, Pulaski Cowper, Esq., Washington, for a club of 21 permanent subscribers for the Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

WHY MR. JOHNSON WILL CERTAINLY BE CONVICTED.

A Washington letter to the New York Herald tells exactly why the Radicals will turn Mr. Johnson out. After admitting that some persons expect Anthony, of Rhode Island; Ede, of California; Edmunds, of Vermont; Fessenden, of Maine; Fowler, of Tennessee; Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey; Grimes, of Iowa; Henderson, of Missouri; Norton, of Minnesota; Ross, of Kansas; Sherman, of Ohio; Sprague, of Rhode Island; Trumbull, of Illinois; and Williams, of Oregon; to vote against conviction, he goes on to show how the Radicals calculate, as follows:

"California has already chosen a successor to the senior Senator. The Senator elect is a Democrat; therefore with Ben Wade in the Presidential office and the senior Senator as the outgoing power, all the patronage of the State falls into the hands of Senator Cole as the prize appertaining to his vote in favor of impeachment.—If he votes against the measure, the present incumbent of the seat which will fall to Mr. Casserly will exercise the functions of dispenser of the Government patronage to the exclusion of Senator Cole, and give him a controlling power at home. This would be equivalent to laying the latter on the shelf for all time to come. In the case of Mr. Fessenden, the Radicals argue the pressure is of a more complicated character.—Hamlin, who it is understood, aspires to the Senatorship from the State of Maine, is known to be popular, and possesses fair chances of success. The Radicals, therefore, farther argue, if Fessenden goes back on the party, it will be equivalent to placing patronage enough in the hands of his colleague (Mr. Morrill) to secure his own re-election, and also the election of Hamlin at the proper time, thus ousting Fessenden. The case of Mr. Sherman is also adverse to his breaking with his party on this important issue. Thurman's choice as the successor to Mr. Wade will throw all the patronage of his State in the hands of Mr. Sherman. In regard to the rest of those whose names are set down in the negative, the same arguments are used.

The whole matter of impeachment from the Radical stand point is one of political self preservation. At any other time than the eve of an important Presidential election, they say such a measure would be of comparatively small importance, and they could afford to let the case take its course; but at this juncture they cannot. Therefore justice is but a feather in the scale compared with the necessity of success, and the whole energy and influence of the party, and all its open and secret organizations and agencies, will be brought to bear to insure success."

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION.—That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HOLDEN IN PITTSBORO'.

PITTSBORO', March 31, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—It had been announced that Holden was seen in Fayetteville, on Thursday, the 26th of March, in a coach and four, and would arrive in said coach, at Pittsboro', on Sunday following, but this turned out to be a mistake. Holden did not arrive in our town until Monday morning, the 30th, which day had been set apart for addressing the people of Chatham.

Leaving Jonesboro', on the Western Railroad, on Saturday, in the stage, he reached Haywood that evening and spent the night there. The next day, being Sunday, Silas Burns (the same man that piloted the Yankees to Wm. G. Harriss' house, in April, 1865, by which Mr. Harriss lost every thing he had,—meat, corn, horses, in fact every thing) went to Haywood in an ox cart and brought Mr. Holden to his house to dinner. The occupants of said cart suggested an idea not novel in this country. I have seen as good, if not better, men than those riding with old Burns, in said cart, in like circumstances, with the exception that the former had ropes around their necks and their progress was towards a gallows. However, be that as it may, Holden and Co. came on from Burns' to Wesley Pendergrass', one mile from town, that night, where they were received with all the hospitality of which Wesley was possessed, and the next morning the whole company walked into town. I was not surprised to see Holden, but I confess I was greatly shocked to see R. W. Lassiter, of Granville County, trudging along with Holden and a crowd of ragged negroes, coming to Pittsboro' to make an assault upon the white people of Chatham County. Lassiter, an old acquaintance, a most respectable citizen of Granville, a member of the Bar and the Senator from that County in the Legislature, a Christian gentleman, is seen following Holden and the niggers, to aid, by his countenance and position, the Radical Jacobins to carry out their unjust and iniquitous plans against the white citizens of Chatham County! The spectacle was one which made my face burn with shame and mortification. R. W. Lassiter, once the high strung, well-balanced, well-bred gentleman, playing second fiddle to Holden, whom he once despised as a mean trickster and the fomenter of all the evils that have befallen our country! I do not mean to impute bad intentions to any one. It is of the rashness of Mr. Lassiter, to whom, on this occasion, the care of his Royal highness, W. W. Holden, was committed, that I complain.

And there was C. L. Harris! Conscious of the restraint which his own sense of propriety was continually suggesting to him, he looked a perfect emaciation of himself; indeed, more like a superannuated tape worm than anything else. He will be consumed along with Holden in the general conflagration which awaits them on the election day.

There was also Dewecse, the candidate for Congress; no one was surprised to see him and very little was said about him.—There were, also, two others along; dark men, disclosing features at once understood,—political caricatures of the party to which they belong.

Well, at the appointed time, these worthies, followed by a troop of ragged negroes, repaired to the African church, outside of which a stage had been erected, and upon this, very soon, Holden, C. L. Harris, Lassiter, Dewecse, old Silas Burns, and the two colored gentlemen that came with them, were mounted. Before the speaking commenced, John Manning came forward and proposed to Mr. Holden to allow a speaker on the Conservative side to reply, which was promptly rejected; whereupon Mr. Manning retired, and, with him, the entire white population, with few exceptions,—the Court House bell, in the mean while, pealing forth its notes to rally them to the speaking of the Conservatives there. Such a crowd of white men never rushed towards the Yankees, in the charge at Gettysburg, as was seen in the streets of Pittsboro on this occasion,—each vieing with the other to enter the Court House first. The speaking was commenced by Mr. Manning, who, on that occasion, did himself great credit as an able speaker.

After concluding, long and repeated calls were made for John H. Haughton, who was present on a visit to his family, and he responded in a noble speech, full of argument, replete with the finest illustrations, and altogether one of Mr. Haughton's best efforts.

John A. Moore was then called for, and, in his didactic style, for a full half hour, he entertained the crowd to their entire satisfaction.

Becoming late, the speaking ceased and left everybody in a good humor. But what a contrast between this meeting and the Holden crowd at the African Church!—There stood Holden, and Harriss, and Lassiter, and Dewcese, surrounded by the most motley crew ever collected together!

Surrounded by negroes, Holden seemed, on this occasion, to sing the plaintive dirge over their misfortunes, while jesting upon the subject of intermarriage between whites and blacks. If he possessed an open, ingenuous countenance, manly sense and easy accommodating manners, he might inspire those around him with some sort of respect, but his face is marked by a scowl, indicative of the motives of the heart. His powers of speech are very limited and exhibit great poverty of resources, and, at times, the bungling manner in which he expressed himself forced the truth out of him. I could but be struck with the horrible doctrine he enunciated. He told the negroes that this never was a white man's Government, but as much the negro's as the white man's, by reason of the three fifths principle of representation in Congress. He told them that nothing but a civil war could or would prevent the negroes from voting, and that if the Conservatives carried the election, the blacks and whites of the Republican party would go down to ruin, and that, rather than that should take place, he would advise them to fight, and, in that fight, to wipe the white people of the Conservative party out, and say to them, as they went down, "May the Lord have mercy on them."

He told the negroes that the whites in the late war had run like turkies, and that the last seven years of government in North Carolina was worse than any government in the hands of negroes; that they should have separate schools for their children, for, (said he) the little white children would prove in the schools to be as rebellious as their parents had been; and if he was Governor he would recommend white men to be officers of the Militia and negroes to be subordinate officers, but thought the Legislature had the power to divide the thing by forming separate black Companies with officers and white officers for white Companies.

Altogether, I considered his speech a most inflammatory one, calculated to arouse the most violent prejudices in the negro against the whites, and to foment resistance to any authority but black Republican rule.

The other speakers mumbled out something, but were cheered with much vehemence by the negroes, and they dispersed.

Yours &c.

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

WASHINGTON, March 31, 1868.

Another act in the great national drama came off in the Senate to day; indeed the greatest trial of modern times may now be considered as fairly commenced. The interest manifested by the public to witness the proceedings was far greater to-day than on any previous occasion, and members of Congress were perfectly overwhelmed with applications for tickets of admission to the Senate gallery.

All eyes were turned to Chief Justice Chase in the expectation that he would make some announcement to the Senate as to the course he should feel himself obliged to pursue.

As anticipated in this correspondence, he failed to meet public anticipation. He simply gave a rap of his gavel, and said the case would proceed. The managers were all in their places, as were also the counsel for the President. As the managers entered, no little surprise was expressed at seeing Butler and Bingham arm in-arm, men known to be at swords' points so far as their personal relations are concerned. Butler regards Bingham as a murderer, and Bingham would not trust Butler inside of his pantry door. Yet they promenaded up the aisle of the Senate to day as closely attached as the Siamese twins. Conover-Ashley came late and alone. His rule is to enter solus, either late or early, with a view, it is said, of preserving his conspicuous individuality.

At ten minutes before 1 o'clock, General Butler commenced reading his opening speech, preceded by a profound bow and "Mr. President." As the speech itself has been sent you, comment is unnecessary. Yet it may not be out of place to say that the impression created by it generally is bitter. At times when he attempted the pathetic he became ridiculous and his comic performance was much below the standard of Dan Rice. When he reached that portion of his oration touching upon the President's speeches in the West, Butler attempted to play the mimic, and to repeat in manner and voice the insulting remarks made to the President by Radical rowdies in the crowd, such as "Bully for you Andy," "Traitor," &c., when some one in the rear of the reporters called out in unison, "Spoons." Butler appropriated much of his time to proving that the respondent could not challenge Senators. But as there had been no provisions on the part of the respondent to challenge, few could see the purport of the argument. Having utterly denied that the Senate was exercising judicial power, while trying a case of impeachment, the speaker quoted from the speech of Mr. Webster, delivered in the Senate in 1835, to disprove the existence of the power of removal, and triumphantly asserted that Mr. Webster had fully settled the question. This was, to say the least of it, a bold position to be assumed, in view of the fact that in the same speech Mr. Webster not only expressly declares that in cases of impeachment the Senate exercises judicial functions, but adds: "I consider it, therefore, a settled point; the power of the President to remove is settled by the Constitution, settled by precedent, settled by the practice of the Government, and settled by statute" (see works of Webster, 4 vol., p. 185.) During the speech the President's counsel, as well as the Hon. Reverdy Johnson, took copious notes. At the end of the first hour lunch time seemed to be generally recognized in the galleries, which now presented the appearance of a grand pic-nic. Everybody was eating, and all seemed to be enjoying the change from labor to refreshment.

Senators' eyes flashed wistfully upwards towards the long lines of blooming fair ones, while Butler continued to read and read badly. Finally, unable to resist longer the infection, Senator Wilson moved for a recess of ten minutes, which was granted.

It being the first recess yet taken, Senators and members and lawyers mixed freely and promiscuously. Cameron and Butler retired to the lunch room below, arm in-arm.—Sumner approached Judge Curtis and engaged some moments in conversation, evidently to the great annoyance of the latter.

Justice Swayne was again on the floor in close conversation with Schenck, and several other Ohio members. General Lorenzo Thomas entered the chamber and remained seated immediately in front of Butler during much of his speech. A Western Senator amused several of Butler's colleagues by relating an incident which occurred at the great Park meeting at New York. Butler was then addressing the crowd, when some one called out, "Greeley," "Greeley," Mr. Greeley came forward and after searching out the individual who had called for him, inquired "what he wanted." "Only to tell you, sir, to keep your hand on your watch," responded the stranger. The recess having expired, Butler resumed his reading.

THEN,

JAS. H. HARRIS, 1st Vice Pres.
A. H. JONES, 2nd Vice Pres.

THE RADICAL COUNTY CANDIDATES AT FORESTVILLE.

FORESTVILLE, March 30, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—To day has been one long to be remembered by the good people of Forestville. At an early hour, a miserable rabble, composed of twenty-nine negro men, seven negro women, and three little knappy headed melnics, one baby, Major Jones, and a white man, hovered around some goods-boxes in front of a dilapidated Blacksmith's shop, for the purpose of "speechifying" and eating ginger-cakes. While waiting for Joe, Holden, and the other scallawags from Raleigh, Major Jones mounted a cheese box, and proceeded to tell the "brudren" how he loved them. It is due to the Major to state that, in the beginning, he announced his reasons for turning Rad,—he being, as is well known, a war man at one time. He said, with trembling lips and tearful eyes, that he invoked Divine guidance, that his heart might be purified of all dross, and he decided to stake his destiny with that of the Radical party. Maje "grew fast and furious," when some questions were propounded, which he could not answer. We could have inferred, from the tenor of his remarks, that he did not object to being called negro, but disliked exceedingly the epithet of scallawag. As he grew more animated, his grammar became worse,—so much so, that his "brudren" were ever ready to blush and hang their heads in shame.

Mr. Would not have been surprised to see him, after he finished the miserable harangue, circulating through the motley crowd, with a white pocket handkerchief, first affectionately wiping the noses of his sable friends, and then his own.

After Maje's effort and failure, "nigger Jim" spoke. Of course, no one noticed what he said.

Next came Sergeant Joe Holden, the drill master. Ye gods, what a speech! He seemed a little "flustered," and labored for about ten minutes. He seemed utterly devoid of energy, owing to the fact that he didn't know his speech, which was "cut and dried." We inferred, from Joe's actions, that he was engaged in a little private speculation, as he was seen to take his stand by a cake basket, the selling of whose contents seemed to interest him more than the speaking. He carried out the principles of his party more thoroughly than any of his colleagues, not hesitating to mix indiscriminately with the negroes. The last we saw of the poor boy, he was in the custody of a smiling African, who was conducting him to the rear of a shanty, where, it was supposed, they refreshed themselves.

The next orator was Mr. Capting Tim Lee, whose Yankee brogue, combined with something else, made his remarks unintelligible, even to the most sensible portion of his audience. He commenced by acknowledging that the Conservative party had all the talent, but that the Mongrels had God on their side, and must come out victorious. A very bold assertion! The Capting tried to be facetious, but lamentably failed. He was particularly unfortunate in his attempt at rhyming. Here is what may be considered a specimen of one of his attempts:

"I don't care a continental for Copperheads and Ku-Klux,
But Holden can relieve any man of the tax."

It would have been very becoming to the Yankee ass-pirant to have wound up his harangue "thusly":

"Come rest in this bunom, my cow-stricken dears,
Banish from your hearts all Copperhead fears;
I know not, I care not, how much you can vote,
But I know that I love you, because you can vote."

The next in the brilliant programme came brother Franklin, one of Daddy Cowles' best breed of pet "purps." This unassuming little gent, declared himself a candidate for the Legislature, to the surprise of the negroes themselves. His remarks were accompanied by huge blushes, and he soon disappeared from the gaze of his audience, and slunk off to a retired spot, there to pray for better success in his next attempt.

The day's proceedings were closed by an extraordinary effort on the part of a lean, lank, little fellow, who aspires to some other office. After a disastrous attempt and failure to say something, he retired ingloriously.

Thus passed the memorable day. The Rads left, quite crest-fallen, and vowing eternal vengeance on the Conservatives of that time-honored village, Forestville.

P.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 2, P. M.

SENATE.—After the reading of the Journal of the Court, Drake moved to amend the seventh rule. It was carried.

Two witnesses were examined. Nothing new elicited. General Emory and Watkins then testified in substance as heretofore published.

The President's letter to Grant was read.

The President's counsel announced that the certificates of the Cabinet officers be read as part of the documents. Judge Chase put the question and it was defeated,—yeas 23, nays 20. So the Managers were not required to read the certificates.

William E. Chandler, late Assistant Secretary of Legation at Berlin, was examined and testified relative to the Johnson coup. The Defence objected to the question regarding Edwin Cooper's appointment.

Butler stated that he intended proving, by this evidence, that the President appointed Cooper, so that Thomas might have access to the Treasury, through Cooper; also that the President had violated the tenure-of-office bill in Cooper's appointment. The evidence was rejected, 23 to 20.

T. A. Tinker, a Telegraph Manager, was examined regarding the telegram between the President and Governor Parsons, regarding the adoption of the Howard Amendment by the Alabama Legislature.

The defence objected.

Bontwell stated that, in the telegrams, the President spoke of Congress as a set of individuals.

Butler contended that the adoption of the Howard Amendment was among the requirements of the reconstruction acts and the President had no right to oppose it. Telegrams admitted, 21 to 17.

On a motion to adjourn, the vote stood 22 to 22. Chase voted aye, and the Court adjourned.

HOUSE.—After returns from the Senate adjourned.

No legislative business to-day.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 25, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, } No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the state of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and so far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the preservation of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
